

Port Louis, Mauritius, June 10 (Infosplusgabon) - The Justice and Peace Commission of the Diocese of Port Louis wants the creation of a ministry responsible for climate change in Mauritius, according to a letter sent to Prime Minister Pravind Jugnauth on Friday.

An official source in the capital of Mauritius told that in the letter, Jean-Maurice Labour, chaplain, and Jean-Paul de Chazal, president of the Commission, believe that Mauritius has used the renewable resources that were given by nature for the year 2018.
